Why he thought the Organic Act hould be amended, and what changes e thought should be incorporated in the amendments, was explained at length yesterday afternoon by Govern-

Frear in an address before the Chamber of Commerce. The Governor went over the ground carefully and enumerated his reasons for incorporat ing each provision in the bill to amend

The meeting was called especially for the puspose of hearing the Governor's address, and the assembly hall was well filled when President Morgan called the body to order. Morgan introduced the Governor with a brief explanation of the purpose of the meet-ing. Governor Frear then arose and took up his subject. The full test of the Governor's statement will be given in a later issue in connection with the Governor's statement before the Senate Committee.

SAID JAPANESE ACTOR

(Continued from Page 1) of the interested parties in the highwage show given last week, according to a story which is agitating the Japanese community today. The story, which Makino denied in toto, was related to the Bulletin as follows:

Hotel off Nuuanu street, where Makino and Secretary Negoro of the Highwage Association , and T. Saito and H. Harada, representing the actors. were enjoying a banquet. During the progress of the banquet, according to this report, Harada, who made speech in the theatre, advising the audience to be quiet, it is said, asked Makino why he (Harada) did not receive more money than any others. He claimed that he was more instru mental in making the high-wage show success, and therefore he should have larger commissions than any of the other actors. It was through the Sugar, 3.70 cents force of Harada's advice to the audi nce to be quiet, that the show went long without serious interruption. Makino did not like the talk, whereupon it is said one of the Jap mese present got a butcher knife and started to attack Makino, but was prevented from stabbing him by those near by.
